

Religious tourism and theology

Scientific Conference with International Participation

College of tourism and management Konjic, Bosnia and Herzegovina

Konjic

25.-26. September, 2019.

It is my pleasure to invite you on behalf of Program Board and Organization Board to a Scientific conference with international participation “Religious tourism and theology”, which will take place in Sarajevo, (Bosnia and Herzegovina), September 25-26, 2019.

Appreciated in a modern way, religious tourism experiences its expansion, fits into global tourism flows driven by incentives in the material and spiritual spheres. The topics we want to discuss and encourage you to think about are following:

Relationship of theology and mass modern movements;

Tourist movements of believers and the role of religious organizations;

Theologians and religious tourism;

System regulation of religious tourism;

Religious objects as tourist attractions;

Media and religious tourism

Application and abstract deadline July 05, 2019.

Authors will be informed by Program Board notice on acceptance of their application and abstract not later than July 15, 2019.

Conference working languages are BHS and English language.

We are looking forward to your application and participation.

Best regards,

Dr. sc. Marijana Šećibović, associate professor

President of the Organization board

College of Tourism and Management Konjic has published a Call for participation in the Scientific conference with international participation Religious Tourism and Theology. In order to encourage new guidance in the contemplation of religious tourism in the modern society from different perspectives and approaches, we invite you to participation and work in a wide range of topics including:

- + Theology
- + Sociology
- + Philosophy
- + History of art
- + Architecture
- + Economy
- + Psychology
- + Political science

Applications (with abstracts) should be sent no later than July 5, 2019.

With the application, please send abstract (250-300 words), to email:

konferencija.vstim@gmail.com

Note: Selected papers after review procedure will be published in the proceedings of the Conference

Important dates:

July 5, 2019. – applications and abstracts;

July 15, 2019. – notice on acceptance of paper draft;

September 5, 2019. – announcement of Conference program;

November 5, 2019.- full text papers

We are looking forward to your application and participation.

Alaudina Boškailo, mr. iur

College of tourism and management Konjic

Organization board Secretary

Scientific conference with international participation

"Religious tourism and theology"

Tel. + 387 36 727 330

Fax. + 387 36 727 330

